Aoife Patterson Artist

My artwork is inspired by archaeology . the landscape and traditional crafts ; exploring aspects of material culture . society and heritage . Archaeology introduced me to traditional Irish basketry , an area I have worked in for ten years. Creating traditional and contemporary baskets , living and non living willow sculptures from a range of materials including willow , hazel and papier machee , natural formations and textiles . My experience as an archaeological illustrator greatly influence and inspire my artwork .

Just Dandy Rockabilly Music

Just Dandy began back in 2005 when Andi ((Andrea Booth..vocals) and Dave (David Murphy.guitar) got together to play their favourite music - an eclectic mix of country, R and B, Rock, Blues and Vintage. Last years Andi's unique and quirky songs combined with Dave's musical talents came together in their first EP of original songs produced by Frankie Lane. Their video of 'Sand in my Shoes Blues' - shot in Bray and Templeogue FC - won Best Video award at the Ukulele Hooley in the Park last summer and the EP of the same title is now available on Spotify. Just Dandy are really excited about Andi's new song which they are planning to release next summer!
